these experiences and for the curiosity they inspire in others also looking to shape their own path. Speaking with students and young professionals entering the workforce is my way of imparting the lessons I've learned in business to help grow the next generation of leaders.

Can you please give us your favorite "Life Lesson Quote"? Can you share how that was relevant to you in your life?

Live with Intention. It's my personal mantra. Every decision I make is with intention—it's the very key to my life. I love to innovate, fuel ambition and strategize success. I like to help others discover their vision, and to serve my family, my community and my faith along the way. I could never accomplish all I set out to do if I didn't try to make every move, every decision with intention. It helps me be the man I aspire to be.

You are a person of great influence. If you could inspire a movement that would bring the most amount of good to the most amount of people, what would that be? You never know what your idea can trigger. ☺

I would love to inspire a Pay-It-Forward movement across identified mediums using profound business lessons. People would share their lessons wrapped in stories and the positive effects they've had. The idea would be to spread savvy business knowledge to help people shape, mold and improve how they go about making a positive impact in business. The goal would help to lift sage business advice from siloed stages and make it accessible to the everyday aspiring professional, fostering the forever-present heartbeat of our U.S. economy: the American Dream.
